

College & Career Panel

January 5, 2017, 7:00-8:30 PM
South Milwaukee Performing Arts Center,
located at South Milwaukee High School
901 15th Avenue, South Milwaukee, WI

Join us for an informal, moderated panel discussion designed to help you learn from students who were in your position not so long ago. Hear recent high school graduates who were involved in gifted and advanced education share their thoughts and experiences as they have embarked on the next step of their education. Hear their insights about their chosen pursuits, challenges they experience, and how their choices in high school have benefited them in their journey. You will be able to ask them about planning and preparing for college and careers.

Gifted and Advanced Learners* in grades 8 through 12 (enrolled in one of the PAGE member school districts*)

If you plan to attend, please register at: <https://pagecollegecareer17.eventbrite.com>

This free event is sponsored by CESA #1 Partners for the Advancement of Gifted Education (PAGE). PAGE is a partnership between a number of area school districts, represented by parents and educators working together to provide educational enrichment opportunities for students and families within participating districts.
